

As a late-deafened adult,I am very dependent on captioning when watching television. It is not helpful to my understanding when the captioner makes errors, especially on newscasts. Every effort to increase accuracy is in the public interest.